

Alumni Association District Leaders
Clarence Dass – Detroit, MI President

Clarence M. Dass is an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney at the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office, where he is a member of the Special Victims Unit.

After graduating from the Prep in 2003, Dass went on to college and then law school. During law school, he began working with victims of child abuse and neglect at the Michigan Department of the Attorney General. He became involved in several anti-crime initiatives, including working toward preventing bullying and youth violence.

In 2010, he began his career at a small law firm in downtown Detroit, but it was not long until he decided to return home to Oakland County and become a prosecutor. As a member of the Special Victims Unit, Dass represents the People of the State of Michigan in matters involving domestic violence, sexual assault, and child and elder abuse all over Oakland County.

He has his bachelor's degree from Wayne State University and his law degree from The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law.

Alex Leonowicz – Chicago, IL President

Alex Leonowicz graduated from St. Mary's in 2004 and went on to attend Kalamazoo College. While there, he played football for four years and obtained his BA in both Business and Psychology.

After college, Leonowicz began clerking in the Oakland County Circuit Court for the Hon. Steven N. Andrews and Hon. Shalina D. Kumar. He was an evening student at the University of Detroit Mercy Law School where he served as President of his class and was a member of Law Review.

He started with Howard & Howard PLLC in their Royal Oak offices before ultimately transitioning to their Chicago office. Leonowicz is licensed in both the state of Michigan and Illinois and focuses his practice on business and corporate law as well as commercial litigation.

Zach Stogdill – Chicago, IL Vice President

Zach Stogdill played varsity football at Orchard Lake and was an All-State Defensive Back on the 2004-05 State Runners Up Team. He graduated from St. Mary's in 2005 and went on to Central Michigan University to play football.

Stogdill then transferred to Michigan State wanting to seek a better education. He graduated in 2010 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in the School of Planning, Design & Construction, and now works as the National Product Manager for PEAK Antifreeze and Oil.

Nick Tootalian – Denver, CO President

Nick Tootalian is an associate at Smith & Cook, LLC, a general practice law firm in Littleton, Colorado. In his position, he practices a variety of law, including family, criminal, personal injury, contract, and property.

After graduating from OLSM Prep in 2005, Tootalian attended Michigan State where he studied film and television production. He moved to Denver a short time after receiving his Bachelors and began studying at The University of Denver Sturm College of Law.

As a law student, he balanced time between classes, interning at the Jefferson County District Attorney's Office, and participating in mock trial. Tootalian looks forward to building a community of OLSM alumni in Denver.

Sean McGraw – Phoenix, AZ President

Sean McGraw is president and owner of Affordable Energy Solutions of Arizona, an alternative energy company he launched in early 2010.

After graduating from St. Mary's in 2006, McGraw moved to Arizona to study Business Sustainability at Arizona State University. Toward the end of his college career, he won the 2011 Innovation Challenge, allowing him to start a sustainable business in Ghana, Africa.

Upon his return from Africa, McGraw began his professional career with the startup of his business, Affordable Energy Solutions of Arizona. AES offers homes and businesses sustainable solutions to reduce their energy consumption and, ultimately, use alternative clean energy. In each of the first five years in business, AES has more than doubled in size and has done work for Bass Pro Shops, US Foods, and CBRE, to name a few. McGraw is focused on making Affordable Energy a national brand.

He also serves as the vice president of the Sun Devil Club Young Professionals, a group that raised over one-million dollars for ASU athletics in 2014, and sits on the Efficiency First Arizona chapter board.

Marshall Clayton – Los Angeles, CA President

Marshall Clayton graduated from St. Mary's in 2003, where he played four years of Lacrosse. He spent one year at Western Michigan and decided he wanted to get out to the West Coast. He attended two semesters at Scottsdale community college, worked 40 hours a week, and gained residency in Arizona.

Clayton then transferred to Arizona State University where he played club lacrosse, making it to the national tournament twice. He also connected with a few other St. Mary's alums (Sean and Sloan McGraw), and graduated in the fall of 2010.

After college, Clayton obtained a job with Randstand Technologies, a world-class organization that specializes in IT Solutions/Services. It is a $26 billion company based in the Netherlands, partnering with Fortune 500 companies like Microsoft, Kellogg's, John Deere, McDonalds and Hilton. He is now the company's Director of Sales in the Los Angeles area.

Matthew Ziskie – San Francisco, CA President

Matthew Ziskie graduated from St. Mary's in 2000.

He is responsible for the Global Travel Program at Airbnb. Prior to joining the company, he served as the Head of Global Procurement at Box, the enterprise-collaboration software provider.

Before his career in the technology industry, he held various procurement and category management responsibilities in the biotech sector, including roles at Onyx Pharmaceuticals and Genentech in San Francisco, and at Basel-based, Roche.

Ziskie started his career as a Strategy Consultant at the Boston-based consultancy, The Asaba Group, where he focused on supply chain design and efficiency for clients in the defense industry. He holds a BA in History from Boston College, and is currently completing an MS in Supply Chain Management at the University of San Diego.

He is currently serving a one-year term as the President of the San Francisco Chapter of the Orchard Lake St. Mary's Preparatory, Alumni Association. In addition to his responsibilities at Airbnb, Ziskie serves as an advisor for the London-based enterprise software company, Old St. Labs. He resides in the Mission District of San Francisco with his wife Angela, daughter Eloise, and pug Seamus. He can be found near a television screen anytime Chelsea FC has a match.

Anthony Alexander – Miami/Fort Lauderdale, FL President

Anthony Alexander graduated from St. Mary's in 2005.

As the Director of Strategic Partnerships at Playwire, he advises artists, labels, content creators, and publishers on how to use new technologies to build sustainable and profitable digital ecosystems for their businesses. Prior to joining Playwire, he worked in artist management, label services, and digital media sales.

As President and Co-Founder of Mango Music Management, Alexander has provided business and tour management, marketing, and branding services for both independent and signed talent. His business acumen and innovative perspective of the entertainment and tech industries have been instrumental to the success of his artists and their ability to cross over from a “performer,” to a “global brand” – J Boog, Morgan Heritage, Vaughn Anthony, The Resolvers.

By 2011, Alexander took over Midwest ad sales for Playwire Media, the largest collection of gaming and entertainment publishers online. During that time, he oversaw digital media sales for Playwire Media's CPG, Automotive, and Movie & Entertainment business. Responsible for planning and implementing high impact media execution across Playwire Media's three entertainment verticals, he was able to grow partner ad spending over 250%, and lead the development of a brand new music vertical with recent partner Def Jam as the anchor.

Alexander briefly played football and lacrosse for the Spartans, and graduated from Michigan State University with a BA in Communication.
